It's 1888 and love is starting to show its face in majestic Casper Wyoming. This historical and inspirational Western romance much-loved series is about empowered women who turn around their hopeless circumstances in this mid-19th-century tale of the old West, with strong faith and discover authentic men and true love. "You're beautiful," he repeated. "We all carry scars, Callie. Some are just hidden deeper than others." Meet Callie, she lost her ma when she was young, and dad just passed on. She's gorgeous except the large scar from her ear to her mouth when a dog mauled her. The local man will not have her, so she seeks out West for companionship and possible love. She agrees to marry Joseph Landon a dry goods store owner in the Wild West. Was it a wise thing for her not to mention her scarred face? What is it that destiny has in mind for both of them that will change everything about real love? The first five minutes of arriving meeting Joseph what nearly scared her to death? Grab your bonnet and jump on the buggy and come out to Casper Wyoming. You will have a lovely time hanging out with the likes of beautiful Callie and her accepting kindhearted husband to be Joseph Landon. Oh yes still will be a few bumps in the road so hold on.... "a story of hope, fear, romance, suspense and true love...." While this book is part of a romance series, it can be definitely be read as a standalone book. Customer Reviews

The book is meant to be read in a short amount of time which makes it impossibles to build much depth to characters or plot, yet Ms. Wyatt shows that compassion and patience are the key .

This was a different story, I enjoyed the authors use of the women's fear as a theme for the story. It has a nice end. Gary love this book would definitely recommend it

I really loved reading this book .

Enjoyed

Excellent as usual.

Callie is a young woman who's mother passed away when she was a little girl. Her father had died just a couple of months before. Not knowing what she was going to do with her life, her aunt helped her out by showing her a magazine with ads from men out west looking for mail-order brides. Without any other options she writes to a man named Joseph who owns a dry goods store. She has only one misgiving: when she was 4 years old she was mauled by a wild dog and she has a long scar on one side of her, otherwise, beautiful face. It has also left her with a profound fear of dogs. After Callie meets Joseph at the train station she finds out that Joseph is not only the owner of the dry goods store, but he also trains Border Collies as cattle dogs. She isn't so sure that she can stay now, but she has nowhere else to go. Joseph slowly helps Callie ease her fears of dogs by giving her a puppy of her own to train. At first, she is terrified but the little guy starts to grow on her. Will she stay or will she go? Katie, if you're reading this, and I'm sure you will, I just want to thank you for making me cry like a baby.

I really enjoyed this clean, Historical, Western Romance. I've voluntarily chose to review it. I have given it a 5*rating. I really liked how the hero dealt with the heroine's fears, more patience than I have. I will say that this story has dogs in it, and they were a big part of the story. On to the next.
