"A candy-colored and vicious delight and always dangerously funny." -Neil Gaiman
NPR - "Now both Princess Syndrome parents and skeptics can find common ground. 'I Hate Fairyland' makes it so much fun to rag on all things fluffy and lovely, it doesn't matter whether you're concerned about your daughter's development or afraid for your friends' and neighbors' sanity."

It may be called 'I Hate Fairyland' but I absolutely LOVE IT!! I came across Scottie Young due to the Wizard of Oz, 6 book series he did. When I came across the first I Hate Fairyland book at the local comic shop I recognized his style immediately and had to buy the comic (after looking briefly through it.) It's unbelievably hilarious and dark, which runs right up my alley. I can't ~~possibly~~ ~~possibly~~ write a decent review that would do this book justice. All I can say is I LOVE this series and I think all high school aged kid's and adult's (with a twisted sense of humor) would enjoy reading this, simply because it's blow your Muffin' Fluffin' face off AWESOME!!

Volume 2 is very good, and brings at least one fresh aspect to the series. The first volume was so amazing, that it's hard for volume 2 to live up to it. I'd give volume 1 a 5-star rating, and this volume a 3.5 to 4-star rating -- not as good as the first volume, but still really good and worth it.

Epic fairytale weirdness with plenty of deadpool-esc humor and violence to offset the bright colors and cute creatures. Must buy if you like Skottie Young Skottie Young is awesome as always! I enjoyed both books in this series.

The graphics are amazing, the plot a bit shallow.

I just started to get into "I Hate Fairyland". Just love the crude humor! It's not for the faint at heart, you just got to love this stuff. Wish there were more volumes at this time, but I guess we have to wait to see how the story evolves. Not a bad price for this type of reading material. I will be a collector. Shipping was fast.

As funny as the first one, loveable and horrible, too much goodness!

Love this story!!! Cannot wait for more!
