Laura Marchesani is an editor at Grosset & Dunlap/PSS! She and Zenaides Medina own an adorable pug puppy, the very inspiration for this book. Jarvis (byjarvis.com) lives in Manchester, UK. He has had a slew of careers, from bingo caller to animation director. Now he loves being a children's book illustrator and creating characters that look alive, handmade, and funny.

It should almost be under Children's Encyclopedia tag - all things people should know about pugs - curly tail, snorting, rolling in mud, and eat a lot. The illustrations are adorable! I tend to expect too much from children's books, and this one is not a masterpiece, but it keeps my kids' (4 and 5y old) attention well. It also provides a lot of repetition with both words and short sentences (see picture). It makes it really easy for kids to follow up and recognize words. That alone would win the 5 star rating for me.

Bought this for our daughter who loves pugs. It was a vety cute story

This book is adorable. My Grandsons favorite thing is his stuffed pig and I have a pug so it was perfect. Love the story of being friends besides differences and finding things in common.

Quick delivery, cute story

I bought this for Grandson and he thoroughly enjoyed it. I would differently recommend this for young readers.

This is our new favorite book to read

Great book for earliest readers.

My son LOVES Pig & Pug!!!
