It is not the Three Little Pigs story that I remember, but given the versions I found online...it is one of the less violent/horrific/sad versions. I don't know where my daughter heard about the three little pigs, I don't recall us telling it to her, but she wanted it read at bed time. We went online to thinking it was a classic children's fairy tale, and having forgotten the ending to the little matchstick girl, or that other version of the three bears, well I ended up here. The artwork is good, the story is basically the bland version I remember, and the little one likes it. What more is needed.
