Debbie Macomber, the author of A Girl's Guide to Moving On, Last One Home, Silver Linings, Love Letters, Mr. Miracle, Blossom Street Brides, and Rose Harbor in Bloom, is a leading voice in women's fiction. Ten of her novels have reached #1 on the New York Times bestseller lists, and five of her beloved Christmas novels have been hit movies on the Hallmark Channel, including Mrs. Miracle and Mr. Miracle. Hallmark Channel also produced the original series Debbie Macomber's Cedar Cove, based on Macomber's Cedar Cove books. She has more than 200 million copies of her books in print worldwide.

I am a real fan of Debbie Macomber and have enjoyed her books, movies, and television series over the years. Purchasing this book was a must for me even without any idea of what the designs would include. This coloring book depicts a number of scenes from various books, including: "Starting Now", "The Inn at Rose Harbor", "Love Letters", "The World of Debbie Macomber", Blossom Street Brides, "Silver Linings", and "Rose Harbor in Bloom". The designs show scenes taken from various quotes. The quote is on the preceding page. No characters are shown but the rooms and houses fit perfectly into what I have always had in my mind's eye for these stories. There are lovely views of the city, harbor, houses, rooms, and even pets. Truly a lovely book of hand-drawn designs. Even if I were not such a fan of Ms. Macomber's work, I would love this coloring book. Most of the designs are detailed and a few have intricate parts which may be more challenging to color. The majority are much easier to color and most coloring mediums should work fine with coloring the details. For my first project, I am using a variety of markers and coloring pencils. The designs are by a team of artists, including: Juan Alarcon, Yvonne Gilbert, Mariko Jesse, Olivia Linn, Ben Perini, Paula Pertile, Sonia Pulido, and Monika Roe. You can tell from the varied artwork that more than one hand and imagination was involved. It makes for a more interesting coloring book as it gives you eight artists in one book. Here is an overview of what I found in the book and during my testing of mediums and coloring in this book:

- 45 Hand-drawn designs depicting scenes from Debbie Macomber books
- Printed on one side of white, heavyweight lightly smooth non-perforated page.
- Quote of Scene is on the preceding page (back of the previous design page).
- Glue Bound: Designs merge into the binding area if you cut pages out, you will lose portions of the design.
- Book opens fairly flat if you "break" the spine.
- Alcohol-based markers bleed through the page.
- Water-based markers and India Ink artist pens show shadows on the back of the page.
- Gel pens do not bleed through the page but need a little extra drying time.
- Coloring pencils work well with this paper; however wax-based pencils do not blend as well as oil-based pencils.
- Soft lead pencils put down good color and layer well.
- Hard lead pencils also show good color and do not dent the back of the page.

Given the construction of this book, with the quote on the prior page, I do not plan to remove pages from the book. I'll want to keep the integrity of the format. Because of this, I will use a blotter page under the page I am working on to keep marker ink from marring the page below.

The Paper in this coloring book is thick and takes multimedia well. The pictures are beautifully drawn. I've used watercolors and they don't leak through. The paper showed minimal buckling. Worth the price.

I am a big Debbie Macomber fan and an avid colorist so it took me not two seconds to decide to buy this book. I love a lot of the pages and will probably color several of them. I am glad they are one sided pages, but they are NOT perforated. As I use alcohol markers I prefer to remove the pages because of bleed through. I did put a piece of cardstock behind this page before I started but it moved a bit and I ruined the next page. Also it is easier to color the inside edge. I decided to remove the next page I wanted to work on, but it didn't rip out cleanly and I had to trim the left side down.

I probably have at least 15 adult coloring books, and like parts of each one. I've started with crayons and brush pens on Xmas books (love the Xmas theme since young). Used Prismacolor pencils, brush pens, and after seeing a YouTube person using multiple media, tried it and liked it. I immediately purchased Stabilo pens and chalk pastels to provide ease and greater depth of my art. Why this coloring book is so great, is that it has interesting common/read "homey" pictures. Some pages are more detailed than others--which makes it nice. If you don't want to color tedious lines, you don't have to. That's why I started trying different mediums as some coloring books were so thin-lined, it made it nearly impossible to adequately color. I'm not familiar with the stories behind the pictures, but I'm pleased with the content, the paper is of quality (though I still use a blotter so I don't spoil pages underneath the one I'm working on). Also, I liked the info on the left side of pages describing the picture/story. Hope you enjoy as much as I have!

I just received The World of Debbie Macomber coloring book. It is absolutely the most beautiful coloring book I have. I love every picture. I have many, many books to compare it with and none of them are as perfect as this one. The drawings are by several different artists. I ordered this book, sight unseen and I am thrilled with it. If you enjoy coloring scenes, pretty porches, knitting items, and homey pictures, this is the book for you!
