Lanna: Thailand's Northern Kingdom (River Books Guides)

Synopsis

Prior to the nineteenth century, the independent kingdom of Lanna flourished in Northern Thailand. Lanna stretched as far north from Phitsanulok to Chiang Rai, as far east as present day Laos and as far west as Burma. Over the centuries, Lanna developed a distinctive art, architecture, language, and culture.

Customer Reviews

I go to a Thai church and have shared this book with many of my students from Thailand. I especially like the full color pictures and illustrations. it explains the culture, people, geography and various buildings and temples in the region.

This is a beautiful book. Perfect for visitors to the region who are interested in visiting local temples ("wat") but do not know which ones to pick out from hundreds of them. This book is not all about temples, mind you. There are wonderful information on Lanna culture, history and places of interest for tourists as well.
