Win Your Lawsuit: A Judge's Guide To Representing Yourself In California Superior Court

Synopsis

Represent yourself in California Superior Court for a case worth up to $25,000! Some cases are too big for small claims court and too small to interest a lawyer. But Win Your Lawsuit takes you step by step through the entire process of a limited jurisdiction case in California Superior Court. Take on common types of civil court cases worth up to $25,000, including: contract disputes, personal injuries, property damage cases and business disputes. Whether you're bringing the suit or defending against one, this plain-English legal guide shows you how to prepare a complaint, file and serve papers, participate in settlement negotiations, present a case and much more. All the forms you need are included. Written by Roderic Duncan, a retired California Superior Court judge, this book includes the legal insight and practical tips that only a judge with over 25 years of experience can provide.

Roderic Duncan was appointed to the California Municipal Court in 1975, and he was elected to the California Superior Court bench in 1987. Over the years, he has been a lecturer and faculty member at two dozen educational programs for judges. In 1990, he was chosen the Judicial Officer of the Year by the California State Bar, Family Law Section. Since retiring from the bench in 1995, he has been doing private judging and mediation.

Provides examples of necessary forms, instructions for correspondence with opposing party, and a lot more. The index in the back is detailed to help find exactly what you're looking for fast. I hope I will not need this book again, but glad it will be in my library. Thank you Judge Duncan for sharing your knowledge with those of us who cannot afford legal council.

This book might be helpful if you have a legal background. It gave me enough information to know that I needed to hire an attorney. I did learn some basic terms that were helpful.
