Church Ladies Quilts (East Perry County)

Synopsis

For generations, ladies have gathered at churches to quilt, as they bring income to their treasury. In Church Ladies Quilts, the fifth and final novel in the East Perry County series, Kate Meyr's love for quilts convince her to join the quilters at Concordia Lutheran church in Borna. The ritual of their practices amuse Kate as she listens to the diverse personalities. It doesn't take long after Kate joins them that a mystery surfaces of a missing quilt. The Pastor, who is dearly admired by the ladies, tries to keep the story quiet for the church's reputation. In the meantime, Kate's friendship with Clark is turned upside down and anew relationship appears with a red Jeep. Kate's research on Josephine is enhanced by discovering who has been putting yellow roses on her grave.

Ann Hazelwood is a former shop owner and native of St. Charles Missouri. She's always adored quilting and is a certified quilt appraiser. She's the author of the wildly successful Colebridge Community Series and considers writing one of her greatest passions. Other Books: Colebridge Community series - The Basement Quilt, The Potting Shed Quilt, The Funeral Parlor Quilt, The Jane Austen Quilt Club, The Ghostly Quilts on Main, Quilted Lilies, A Colebridge Quilted Christmas

I love this series!! I can't wait for book #4 to come out! These are easy to read books, I like to call them warm and cozy type books. Similar to a Debbie Macomber type book. Love the town and characters! Could have been edited better due to misplaced words. That goes for all the books in the series so far. But easy to get around those and still enjoy the book.

Disappointed that there wasn't a better, more satisfying closure. Love the characters in the whole series and I read all 4 books in 5 days or so. Thought there could be less traumas so that it was more realistic. The proofreading was atrocious, especially around the text messages.

Ann Hazelwood is a wonderful writer. I can hardly wait for her next book. This is the second of her series and keep watching for the next book. I will order them all! I am a quilter, making these stories super interesting with wonderful ideas. I hated to see her last series end because the reader gets to know all of her characters and could picture the stories endless. I can think of many things to have kept writing about after the new baby arrived and hoped she would find a new husband.

I actually stopped reading with two chapters to go until the next day so I could make the book last longer! I can't wait for the next book.

I love this author and her creative ability to keep the content moving along, Can't wait until the next book is available in this series. Read her first series last year when I first came across them.. For whatever reason, her story line and all the characters in the books hold my attention and are hard to put aside. For me, who has not been a heavy reader through life, reading a series is new for me. Story content in these books could be very real -- they hold my attention.

I am getting ready to start this book tonight. It got to me timely & in excellent shape. This is the latest in the series. I love them all & am excited to read it.

This was such a good book. It was well written. So interesting that I couldn't put it down. I am anxious to start the next book but since I must clean house and catch up laundry; therefore I must wait to purchase the next book.

Always enjoy Ann Hazelwood's writing. Reassured to know these small communities are still around. Very descriptive.
