Hike Cape Town: Top Day Trails On The Peninsula

Synopsis

This compilation of the best hikes around Cape Town showcases the diversity of walks and scrambles on Table Mountain and the Cape Peninsula. This guide showcases trails that range from easy, coastal strolls on which hikers can enjoy the rich marine life of the Peninsula to more challenging and exposed scrambling routes that will excite even veteran mountaineers. While covering the most popular trails on Table Mountain, including Lion's Head, Platteklip Gorge, Kasteelspoort, Devil's Peak, Smut's Track, and the Contour Path, this reference also looks at lesser-known gems, such as Myburgh's Waterfall Ravine, famous for its spectacular display of summer orchids, and the iconic trails of the Cape Peninsula. Each entry features a detailed and accurate trail map and key information on access, difficulty, length, approximate duration as well as the flora, fauna, and historical features that you will likely see along the way.
