My copy just arrived and, flipping through it, ended up reading the two page section of The Great Movie Ride which consists of twelve short paragraphs. Though I consider myself to be rather knowledgeable about WDW, each of the twelve paragraphs taught me something new. I was 0 for 12! I look forward to reading the other 176 pages.

In preparation for an upcoming trip to Walt Disney World, I wanted some insight into the background and insider tips to the parks. Jim Korkis is the go to guy for this sort of information. Just a fun read. Highly recommended.

I am a big Disney fan and have read a lot of books on the subject, but this contained information I was not aware of. I would consider it a must-read for any Disney fan. The book is a quick read, but still was packed with lots of interesting information. This book also got me interested in other books by Jim Korkis who is quite a Disney expert!

I am a total Disney fanatic and I know so much about the parks. This book opened up my knowledge even further. I go to Disney about once a month as I am an annual passholder and whenever I am there I can point out fun facts to friends and family. They call me a walking map or their own personal tour guide. I am 100% sure I will buy Korkis' other books. Well done!

Jim Korkis is fascinating. The book has some interesting tidbits, but even the things I already knew are fun to hear again as told by Mr. Korkis!

Another winner by Jim "Disney Historian" Korkis. This was so interesting, I read the whole book in one session! Thanks Jim for all your research; now I will have to buy the other editions so I can see if there are other things I thought I knew.

entertaining but not very secret

Super interesting
