Val Cripps Through coloring, drawing, essential oils, crystals and positive thinking, Valerie guides you back to yourself, your own intuition, your own inner strength and calm. A new mindset is only a thought away. Valerie Cripps lives in Los Angeles, CA with her husband and two young boys. She has worked for many years in the film industry as a visual fx artist, but her first love and passion has always been creating and expressing herself through art, music and her voice. 2015 has been a powerfully transformational experience, from finding her voice through voice over classes, to stepping into her own empowerment and spirituality through wonderful connections with gifted healers, teachers, meditation and creation. In July, she dedicated herself to creating a coloring book that not only documents this transformational journey, but offers up visionary images, guidance and tools to this expansive practice.

This unique book is more than just a coloring book, it's a meditative journey. Valtopia is beautifully drawn and the included "Valtopia: Your Guide" thoughtfully guides you through a meditative journey - complete with a suggested essential oil and accompanying crystal.
