Customer Reviews

I will warn you the ending is a little anticlimactic but it's a great story over all. My favorite line is "But love doesn't make sense really, it isn't logical". Also the fact the poor Necromancer has his life run by a 200 year old vampire and a 12 year old ghost. It makes for some very fun reading. The point of view and secondary story line is that of a half angel looking for what's left of her family and the fact she is being forced to change as well. I like the point of view changes between her and Vance and feel the story flows well just that slight let down at the ending but over all a great story.

I will be reading the next book! It is not the absolute best book I've ever read, however, I'm comparing it to my favorites. Had I not read my favorite book, this would be in the top ten. That said it is in my top 20, which is saying something considering I have read over 1000 books. There is action, Adventure, kinky love, and new ideas of paranormal romance. It was refreshing, not the same old, same old. Its not a cookie cutter novel. I loved it. I did skip over most of the F/F love scenes, not because I am against that morally, You do what works for you, but because it just isn't something I want to read, just not for me. Doing so did not take away from the book. I can't wait to see where this goes!

This book is just as described. An erotic fantasy book with some very steamy scenes and an interesting plot. Definitely worth a read if you want something.... stimulating.

Well written definitely worth the read. Good job!
