Who Do You Think You Are?

Synopsis

Do you know who you really are? Many people don't. Selfishness and pride camouflage the real person. It is obscured by popular culture, repackaged by the deceptions of the media, and warped by the deceits of this world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things • (Mark 4:19). Furthermore, Satan and his minions are out to steal the spiritual identities of God's children, seeking to obscure the truth and confuse believers regarding who they really are in God. Only in the light of Christ's sacrifice can we even begin to appreciate how much we are worth to God. The Father unlocked the vault of heaven and emptied it to save us and nothing will deter Him from His purpose to liberate the people Christ ransomed with His own life "and bring them safely home. The goal of this book is to help fan away the chaff, exposing the essence of who you really are "and more importantly "who you can really become through Christ!

Customer Reviews

Love the Bible verses used and how they tie in to the body of the book. New perspective on these verses.

A good reminder of what we're doing here on earth. Plain and simple terms for all Christians. I always enjoy Doug's writing.

I love this book. It is also a great witnessing tool and for sharing with others.

The only reason I did not give a five star rating, to concise. But all round faith builder. Can't be dormant to your Christian lifestyle anymore, time for the great commission to be fulfilled. Plan to study this one.

Enjoyed the content. Very interesting. Sometimes we need a reality check as to who we really are. Will read again. Enjoy this author's style of writing.
