I started singing lessons fairly recently and my teacher suggested I find a Rodgers and Hammerstein song in the soprano range to work on. I was really pleased to find this book. It's a great selection, nicely printed, and the cds are very useful. The main singer's voice on the CD is a bit warbly for my liking and not easy to listen to, but it is good to have that and follow the music to learn the songs. I haven't tried running the accompaniment CD at different speeds yet, but that sounds like a good feature to have. I would definitely recommend this book.

Just what I needed for my audition. It's helpful and I really enjoy having it.

We like this series. The music is large enough and there is a variety of songs. The CD makes it worthwhile.
