Customer Reviews

Instead of going through the ordeal of using toxic chemicals on your body, which I did for a month and burned my skin quite badly setting myself up for further infestations, purchase a zapper and two thermal blankets. Wrap yourself in the thermal blankets and zap for 15-25 minutes per session until the parasites are gone. May take only one zapping session. Also, website: StopSkinMites has a lot of useful info.

I wasn't too thrilled by the book. The one "actual" cure was a combination of two products for several days. One of the products isn't readily available from doctors here in the U.S.I didn't have too much hope going in when I purchased the book, so I wasn't too dissapointed.
