Customer Reviews

CD was worthless - too much added music overlaying the piano. Lots of wasted paper, little in the way of lessons. The John Thompson's series is much better.

There is nothing to not like about the Premier Piano course. In fact, I have switched over all of my students into the Premier books because they are just more interesting than the Alfred's Piano Course. The teacher accompaniment is brilliant and I get as much enjoyment out of it as they do.

Grandson loves the new challenges he gets with more contemporary songs.

Great series.

Used this for many years with my beginning students. I like the addition of this to the Alfred Method.
The addition of the rehearsal cd is a bonus.

Simple, focused, and user friendly.

Great
