MARY POPE OSBORNE is the author of the New York Times number one bestselling Magic Tree

House series. She and her husband, writer Will Osborne (author of Magic Tree House: The Musical), live in northwestern Connecticut with their three dogs. Ms. Osborne is also the coauthor of the companion Magic Tree House Fact Trackers series with Will, and with her sister, Natalie Pope Boyce. SAL MURDOCCA has illustrated more than 200 children's trade and text books. He is also a librettist for children's opera, a video artist, an avid runner, hiker, and bicyclist, and a teacher of children's illustration at the Parsons School of Design. Sal lives and works in New York with his wife, Nancy.

I love reading these books to my children. We haven't found one that we didn't like. I always learn something new from the facts that the fiction is based on. We have also listened to some of the books on CD in the car and they are enjoyed by the whole family.

The Magic Tree House books are our "go to" bedtime stories. All of Jack and Annie's adventures help children envision the places that each adventure occurs.

My grandkids love the book

grandson loves it

My 6 year old first grader son is in love with these books. He reads a book in about 2 days. I couldn't believe how interested he was in reading. Perfect adventure books for kids!

My just turned 10 year old daughter loved this book. She had read it several times.

This book series has been a go to for my seven year old daughter for two years now. She loves the stories and can't put them down once she starts reading.

Great books for children in 1st to 3rd grade. They are adventure books and this one in particular is quite interesting. My child loves them!
