There are many Japanese gay manga artists. Until now, I've had to read them online to read any in English, and some of the translations are a little odd. Some are almost unintelligible. Takeishi Matsu is my favorite because I like romance and happy endings with my sex. You might get a little romance out of Gengoroh Tagame, you might even get an occasional happy ending (of some sort), but you sure as hell are going to get SEX. Tagame's drawings are not as finished as Matsu's but the rougher quality goes with the story lines of bondage, discipline, domination, and s&m. If you've read Tagame online and are worried that some of THOSE stories will be in the book, don't worry that your neighbors on the subway will throw you off the train. The really, really, really hardcore ones aren't in this book. But the ones that are aren't exactly vanilla. You still get the real Tagame, which is pretty damn hot. This is a larger size hardcover, which gives more room for the drawings. The English translation makes sense. Tagame writes notes about the stories and shows a delightful sense of humor. I really like Tagame's work overall, even though some of it turns me off, and I am very happy to have this book in my home library. Comics I enjoy reading over and over. I hope we see more gay manga in English. Takeishi Matsu please!

There's only one author that can accomplish these amazing comics and that is Tagame. I hope they start carrying more of his available works.

Beautifully done from cover to cover; interesting, erotic and violent. The stories range from the realistic to pure science fiction all with varying degrees of S/M and sexual violence. Not for children

I've been a fan of this artist since I was living in Japan and got some of his manga second-hand, and then started buying issues of G-Men just to get the serial installments of his stories. This collection is more of the same. Definitely one-handed reading.

FINALLY, an English version of such beautiful, detailed Japanese artwork. As you know, NOT for the faint hearted. Please share OTHER English translations for Tagame and similar artists with others.

interesting drawing process

Wow, what an artist Gengoroh Tagame is.....Not for the faint hearted, but if you are a lover of BS&M, then you will love this book. The drawings are just amazing.

A few of the stories may be familiar to followers of this artist, but this is the first time I've ever seen them translated into English so well. One story was written especially for this volume, and there are several others that were new to me.
