Goodness And Mercy

Synopsis

Join Matthew Pinati on his introspective odyssey into the mind, heart, and spirit of a wayward boy who found enlightenment through the love and guidance of his Divine Creator and God's only begotten Son, Jesus Christ. Experience the whole spectrum of emotions and issues (e.g., bitterness, anger, worry, fear, love, joy, patience, kindness, forgiveness, unforgiveness, illiteracy, divorce, marriage, birth, death, abuse and neglect, alcoholism, addiction, suicide, gender-orientation, and so much more). Laugh, cry, and pause to reflect as you witness this extraordinary life and perhaps, through him, your own capacity to endure enormous trials and ultimate redemption!

Just got Goodness and Mercy yesterday after meeting the author Fred. I am 43 pages into this book and I have not been able to put it down. Being a resident of Oahu (Waianae) 11 years I have seen these things happen on a daily basis. I live right next to Waianae HS and every school day I see the kids walking to school smoking up before school. The kids are great and I love them all dearly. One day one of the young boys offered me a hit on a joint and I told him I used to work in the juvenile court system and he put it up. My friends from Waianae HS run from folks that graduated from their 1st class to a 72 year old football player that used to be one of the bad boys. His words not mine. Two young HS students warning this 71 year old skinny ginny (dark skinned 1/2 Italian) about the sharks out behind Makaha Surf Side where I love to snorkel, boogie board and kayak. I will probably learn to surf soon. I'm too skinny for sharks. Back to the book, get it read it, give it to your friends as a Pastor here in Waianae I sure will. Aloha Tommy
