Susan K. Bollin is a geologist and an author. She has written extensively in the fields of earth science and environmental science for both adults and children. In addition, she has written books for dog, cat and horse owners. Most recently, Ms. Bollin has written cookbooks about south-western and Mexican foods. In addition to Salsa Lovers Cook Book, she is also the author of Quick-n-Easy Mexican Recipes, Chip and Dip Lovers Cook Book and Sedona Cook Book. She and her family live in Arizona.

Great salsa recipes that are easy to make. Even though there are over 180 recipes, many are different variations of the same but they produce a different flavor. I'm glad I purchased the product and eventually I'm looking forward to making all 180.

Great book. Like the binder well laid out, with a ton of recipes in it. You will find several recipes you will like and easy to make. Wish more recipe books can be like this.

I gave a copy to my neighbor, she's enjoying the surprisingly large variations of salsa to make. I've had my copies for several years and almost of the pages have been indoctrined with a splattering of tomato, avocado, beans, or something! I whole-heartedly recommend this cookbook! Not only are there recipes for tortilla chip dipping, there are recipes for topping ice cream, cake, and fruit, but also for tasty coffee treats!

Just ok, lots of recipes but generally very similar with minor variations good

Would of preferred some pictures to see what the salsas looked like at the end but a good recipe book nonetheless.

These recipes are very, very tasty. Everyone who tastes these recipes always ask me to give the recipe to them. Love these recipes.

It was just like new. Arrived quickly. I am enjoying using the great recipes
