By Grace I Fell For You: A Christian Romance Story (New Day Of Faith Book 3)

Synopsis

China Moore is the beautiful, saved owner of a very successful fashion shop. She's worked hard to turn her business into the success that it is. But working hard has left no time for play for the twenty-nine year old beauty. Between church and her entrepreneurial efforts, she barely has time for anything else. She's on good-speaking terms with the very handsome delivery driver who's been bringing packages into her shop for the last two years. In fact, she's downright attracted to the man. When unexpected circumstances leave the two interacting with each other more than they ever have before, will they somehow make a love connection? And will they find that they are each other's happy-ever-after? Through God's grace, maybe they will.

Customer Reviews

This is a clean Christian based romance that makes good scripture references and is family oriented with a bit of suspense/mystery in it, but something about the way the characters spoke to one another turned me off.
