Corinne Thompson was a four-year letter-winner in volleyball (1983-1987) at George Washington University and a three-year starting setter. During her senior year she was co-captain of her squad, Atlantic 10 "Player of the Week," selected to both the A-10 all-conference and all-tournament second team and the NCAA All-Northeast Region team. Her jumping ability helped her to become the only right-side blocker in GW's history to hold an individual career record for solo blocks in the top 10. In 1999 she was inducted into GW's Athletic Hall of Fame. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., and raised in Chappaqua, N.Y., she excelled in volleyball, basketball, softball and track at Horace Greeley High School. Thompson narrowed her athletic focus to volleyball at GW. In addition to her individual skills, she was an excellent team player, helping her teammates achieve a four-year record of 107-46 (.700). She is one of only three GW volleyball players to make the NCAA

All-Northeast Region team. Thompson has run in five marathons and continued playing competitive volleyball after graduating from GW. She participated in the Open, AA and A Divisions of the Chesapeake Region (USA Volleyball), earning all-tournament honors in '95 and '96. She played her final tournament in April, 2011 so she could focus on coaching her daughter, Julia. Thompson lives in Warrenton, Virginia with her husband, four children, three dogs and a parakeet and is a licensed massage therapist and certified personal trainer. She works as the Registrar at the local high school and coaches both high school JV and U12 travel teams.

My mom got this for me because I want to play volleyball in college. I had no idea how to go about getting recruited until I read this book. I thought coaches would contact me, send me letters of interest and come see me play without having to do anything. That is not the case at all! This book is easy to read and has tons of information not found anywhere else. I had no idea so much went in to getting recruited. The chapters containing advice from college coaches in their own words is really helpful. They are divided up by Division I, II and III and there's an impressive list of schools who have contributed their advice! Ms. Thompson knows what she's talking about. I highly recommend this book to any athlete or parent of an athlete who wants to know more about the recruiting process, the recruiting video and steps you need to take to play at the college level. I'm so glad I got this book or I would have missed out. Get this book. It's worth it!

I am the father of an HS Sophomore and was struggling with all the fine points of starting the recruiting process. I purchased several books on the subject but they mostly disorganized and seemed to not address the basics. I ordered "Play Volleyball In College" and found it to be concise and a very easy read! Corinne really knows her stuff and will put you on the right path. I read her intro with my daughter and we both agreed that our goals matched and that we were prepared for this journey together. BUY THIS BOOK FIRST and you will hit the ground rolling! I still had some questions and Corinne emailed me back very quickly with the right answers! It's a 10 out of 10 for sure! Thanks Corinne!!!!

YOUR BOOK IS GREAT I LOVE LOVE LOVE IT. I think it will be my gift to all players in our program and middle school coaches....Straight forward and honest tells it like it is.....THANK YOU!

Not only for the nitty-gritty "how-to," but one of reassurance in tackling what some families have experienced as a daunting process. By following Coach Thompson's explicit, encouraging advice to a T, no other girl should have a better shot at playing volleyball in college.

I bought this book for my daughter and she read it cover to cover in one sitting. She is a Junior in high school and thought coaches would come see her play without having to reach out to them first. That is not the case! Thankfully, she knows what to do now, and will be able to get her recruiting package out by the deadline. Thank you for writing this book. I can't thank you enough!
